

Knowledgebase

Getting Returned Messages from your Domain

If you are getting many returned emails and bounce back messages but not sure why, it is most likely email spoofing . This happens quite often on the most commonly used addresses (info@, sales@, webmaster@, etc.) and also on email addresses that are listed on the website. Unfortunately this cannot be prevented. The bounce back emails should work themselves out over the next several days.

All content copyright Jumpline.com